The DIMMER VIEW

by Max Goodwin

They're Back on the Street

Those of us who are around cops frequently get to know who the soft judges are said to be — judges who "turn suspects back on the streets after we get them off."

One such judge is in the El Cajon Municipal Court. The other is said to be a judge in the South Bay Municipal Court. This material is about the latter. Her name is Judge Mary G. Gell.

In an invective-laden open letter dated January 26 (copies of which were released to the press) the San Diego County Deputy Sheriff's Association condemned Her Honor for releasing three defendants whom, they charge, had produced enough violence to earn them the privilege of being guests in the County Jail until their trial. She had released one without bail and had reduced potential bail on another from $20,000 to $1,000. The third was released on $1,000 bail from a much higher base.

The letter, signed by the Association's president E. F. "Skip" Murphy, related how two deputy sheriffs had been attacked from the rear by three subjects while the deputies were responding to a call for aid in Chula Vista where the three were allegedly causing a disturbance and doing physical damage to a restaurant.

The three are reported to have become argumentative and physically abusive and attacked the officers. One officer suffered a broken nose and other broken facial bones.

Following the assault on the officers, two of the defendants made off in their auto but returned, deliberately jumping the raised center divider of the highway smashing into the deputy's car, hitting it on the driver's side — apparently, they say, attempting to injure the officers in it.

The two sped away with a Chula Vista Police patrol vehicle in pursuit. The C.V. police vehicle, it was reported, was deliberately rammed by the pair. California Highway Patrol and other Chula Vista units finally took the miscreants into custody.

The letter notes that the defendants were not intoxicated. That couldn't excuse their acts on insobriety.

The letter charged any "normal" person would believe the defendants to be violence-prone and that one of them "made statement that he wanted to 'dust' (kill) the big cop."

They were not the "cream of society" since records show that two of the three had been arrested in the past for violence, numerous felonies, including firearms violations.

The letter asked the question of Judge Gell: "Is (small and no bail) adequate to ensure public safety from these men who destroyed property, attacked police officers, tried to run down officers with a vehicle, created great danger to members of the public?"

The Association answered its own question: "These individuals should be held in custody and not allowed to be roaming the streets again."

"We believe that you (Judge Gell) appear to be abusing the position to which you have been appointed. A judge is supposed to think in terms of justice not only for the accused but what is justice for the public."

"Allowing dangerous persons to walk the street when something could have been done about it is denying the public its right to justice," Murphy said.

All of which is a woeful story for police but Judge Gell said she was operating under standard procedures.

Standards (for bonds or release) are set by the Appellate Court, she said. A criterion is whether the judge believes the suspect will appear for trial.

Whether the suspect has been involved in other charges in the past is not basis for decision. The basis is probability of appearance, she added.

The place to look for relief is the legislature," she said. "We can't make laws as we go along."

The judge is viewing the penalty stage which will come later. The police are viewing it from a violence level. No one could argue that the scenario was anything but violent.

There must be some legislation that takes violence off the streets — or at least some legal philosophy which permits a court to rule that those who have a tendency for violence should be held in custody until the penalty phase is heard.

It would be a welcome relief for the public which pays for cops, courts, judges and jails and is too often deprived of the protection promised by the combination.

City Faces Its First Lawsuit; Disposal Firm Disputes Rezone

The City of Lemon Grove is quivering — more or less — under the pain of its first lawsuit.

The suit was filed this week by EdCo Disposal Corp., a firm which collects refuse from many areas of the county including Lemon Grove.

More accurately, the City of Lemon Grove was served with a Petition for Writ of Mandate requiring the City to appear in Superior Court on March 3, to show why the City and its councilmen should not be restrained from enforcing a zoning ordinance which the City's Zoning Department (County) is charged with having "capriciously and arbitrarily misinterpreted."

Broken down into understandable English, Ed Burr, president of the refuse firm, charges that the City has labeled the EdCo M-zone facility at 6670 Federal Blvd. a trucking terminal. Trucking facilities are banned in M zones. Burr claims he is operating a repair facility.

San Diego County's Department of Land Use and Environmental Regulation (LUR) approved the site for office and truck repair facility for the firm in January, 1977 and the facility was constructed.

On September 26 LURER said the property didn't conform.

On December 19 L.G. City council held a public hearing and affirmed LURER's decision.

Burr charges that the City is without jurisdiction in rezoning and failed to grant a fair trial. It abused its discretionary power and its determination is not supported by evidence.

Burr claims the rezone will cause irreparable damage and that he will present evidence that the facility is a general service and repair facility for the purpose of keeping EdCo vehicles in a safe and functional condition.

Growth Management Forum Scheduled

County Supervisor Lucille V. Moore and the County Growth Management Program will sponsor a second growth management forum in February at El Cajon Valley High School.

The public forum will be held 10 a.m.-2 p.m. Saturday, February 11, in the cafeteria of El Cajon Valley High School.

"This second growth management forum is part of the continuing dialogue started last spring when we conducted the first growth session held in the Second Supervisorial District," said Mrs. Moore, chairwoman of the Board of Supervisors.

"Information obtained from the public meetings will be considered in developing the County's growth policies."

Speakers for the forum will include Mrs. Moore, David Nielsen, director of the Growth Management Program, and Kim John Kilkeny and Nikki Symington, members of Mrs. Moore's staff.

THE OVERLOOKED BOX — Crime Prevention Specialist Ed Strehlau shows Mr. and Mrs. Harold Davis of Lemon Grove how a burglar can disarm security systems and burglar alarms with the flick of a switch.

Crime Prevention Specialists Target Vulnerable Area 1410

by Fred Ash

Crime Prevention Specialist Ed Strehlau had a premonition burglars would find their way into a Lemon Grove residence via an unsecured French window in the garage.

On a routine crime prevention check, checks currently being conducted in residences throughout the Lemon Grove and Spring Valley area by the San Diego County Sheriff's department, Strehlau found the window and warned the homeowner.

The tip proved vital. About a week later, burglars entered the residence through the same French window Strehlau warned about. The owner has since secured it.

A crime prevention check basically is the same operation a criminal would perform while looking over a residence for the easiest mode of entry.

"We try to look over a home as if we had the eyes of a burglar," said Crime Prevention Specialist Strehlau. "Then make recommendations to the homeowner."

The prevention unit arrived at the Lemon Grove Substation last fall and have since been conducting such checks on area homes.

Burglar-proofing Strehlau said the check begins with an outside inspection of the home.

Checked are such items as window and door screens, landscape cover, and locks.

On the inside, engraving of valuables is stressed along with other ways the home and its contents may be secured.

Rain Season Total 12.28

Another storm slithered in Monday and left .35 of an inch locally.

The one-day storm brought the season total to 12.28. Last year, same date, it was 7.31. Rain seasons start July 1.

Hard Hit Area 1410

Concentrated efforts of the Crime Prevention Specialists are currently underway in area 1410, roughly the area around San Altos School.

Area 1410 (areas are designated by SD Sheriffs on a "Master Beat" system. The 14 designates Lemon Grove while the 10 designates a specific area in the city), has suffered the highest number of home burglaries.

Some 45 burglaries have occurred there since October 1977, more burglaries than anywhere else in Lemon Grove.

The sheriffs believe the area is prime target for what they call "spillover crime" from the city of San Diego, across 69th street to the west.

But, the Sheriffs contend, there may be another reason for the high burglary rate in the area — apathy.

Some of the cases show homeowners forgetting to lock their front doors.

Of the hardest hit streets,

Maderas, San Altos School is nearby and crime tends to be high around learning centers.

Yet on another street, Watwood, where the residents have a "tight, cohesive group" no burglaries have occurred.

The crime prevention specialists believe homeowners looking out for one another, coupled with a crime prevention check, will secure most areas in Lemon Grove.

And it is Area 1410 in Lemon Grove which has become their target.

June Mott Wins School, Community Service Award

June M. Mott of Lemon Grove, an English-Journalism teacher at Mt. Miguel High school, was one of 4 teachers to win a Salute to Education award for outstanding service to the school and community.

The awards were made by the San Diego Industry and Education Council.

Charles Feiser of Spring Valley, a history-political science teacher at Helix High school was also an award winner.

The nominees were chosen from more than 10,000 throughout the county and received the awards as a January banquet.

Mrs. Mott is president-elect of the Grossmont Education Assn. At Mt. Miguel she reorganized the English department, brought libraries to the classroom and originated a clinic for students who needed more English study.

She has been teaching 36 years.

Feiser is chairman of the social sciences department and president of the Grossmont Education Assn. He has taught 22 years and has served on numerous state and local curriculum committees.

Only 10 awards are made by the group each year.

Councilman Doherty Cites Goals in Sheriff's Race

Lemon Grove City Councilman Jack Doherty, 30, reannounced his candidacy for S.D. County Sheriff Thursday at the San Diego Press club.

He had announced his intentions to run earlier when he took a leave of absence from his job in the San Diego Police Department's Legal Advisor's office in November and took out nominating papers.

His supporters are distributing nomination petitions at present, he said.

Doherty, who holds a law degree from USD School of Law, one of five elected to Lemon Grove first-ever city council in March, has been politically active since. He successfully led a small band of resident homeowners in E.L.G. who were struggling to be included within the boundaries of the new city.

He said that his budget for election would be $53,000 or less and that fund-raising had not started.

He said his support would come from a broad cross section of professionals — such as professors, attorneys and doctors. Additional support would come from young voters and liberals, he said.

He also said that the Sheriff's Assn. was going to "sit this one (election) out." Lack of support by the sheriff during the deputies salary negotiations contributed to this decision, he said.

He called the jail "a disgrace" where conditions exist that constitute "cruel and inhuman treatment."

He claims the sheriff "has isolated himself atop an ivory tower" and that the sheriff had lost contact with people and with other governmental agencies. He cited bitter battles between the sheriff and the Board of Supervisors and fights with the Grand Jury.

He said he would bring professionalism into the office rather than the present "brawling, two-fisted approach."

He proposes to let area offices of the sheriff tailor enforcement policies to the needs and desires of the communities they serve.

Listed as those supporting his bid for election are Drs. Stanley Willis, Jack Douglas and G. Thomas Gitchoff. Bob Gilmore is named as treasurer of his campaign.

ID WANTED — The man in the above photo is said to have attempted to use a stolen pass-book to cash a check for several hundred dollars on January 9 at the L.G. Branch of the California 1st. National Bank.

Earlier that day the home of a L.G. resident had been burglarized of several items — including the pass book rejected at the bank.

Identification of the above suspect described as black, in his 20's, thin, about 5-8 may solve the burglary. Contact is Sheriff's detective Doug Henderson who can be reached 8-5 weekdays at 236-2902.

ICC Hearings on SD&AE RR To Be Held in S.D. April 4

Long-awaited hearings by the Interstate Commerce Commission (ICC) on the proposed abandonment of the San Diego and Arizona Eastern Railway have been scheduled to start April 4 in San Diego and are expected to last about three weeks, San Diego Rep. Lionel Van Deerlin said.

Van Deerlin said that during the proceedings the burden of proof will be on the Southern Pacific Transportation Co. which owns the SD&AE line and wants to get rid of it.

SP will furnish the initial witnesses who will be subject to cross-examination by individuals and organizations opposing abandonment, but opponents also will be heard.

The SD&AE tracks run from San Diego to El Centro and are San Diego's only direct rail link to the east. The line was damaged by Hurricane Kathleen in September, 1976, and has not been repaired.

Abandonment is opposed by local governments, the Unified Port District, area chambers of commerce and businesses which say they depend on the rail service.

Following the hearings, the presiding administrative law judge, who has not yet been selected, will write an initial decision. Interested parties will then have an additional period of commenting after which the full ICC will make its own ruling.

Van Deerlin said the entire process should take about 18 months.

A site for the hearings has not been selected.

LG To Collect $54,000 in State Apportionments

Lemon Grove will receive more than $54,000 in highway users, cigarette and motor vehicle taxes as their share of the January state tax apportionment.

The city received $21,877 from the highway users fund, $4,538 from the cigarette fund, and $29,532 in the motor vehicle license fees.

The apportionment comes from taxes collected during December.

Catholic Daughters' Spring Concert Set

Dates for the Second Annual Spring Concert presented by the thirteen San Diego area courts of Catholic Daughters of America have been set.

The concert will be held on February 26 in El Camino Theatre at the University of San Diego. The concert will begin at 4:30 p.m.

Making final preparation for this year's event, the concert committee will meet in the home of Lemon Grove resident Eleanor McCormick on Saturday. That meeting will begin at 2 p.m.

Also serving with McCormick on the committee is Mrs. Josephine Ross, the Regent of Court Teresa of Lemon Grove. Ticket prices have been set at $5 and may now be ordered through Eleanor McCormick at 466-6760.

Gospel Singers To Appear

Gospel singers, the "Melodyaires" will appear at 6 p.m. Sunday in the Sweetwater Assembly of God Church, 6090 Bambury street, Paradise Hills.

Passion Sun. Concert Set for S.D. Church

The Sacred Music Series at the La Jolla Presbyterian Church, 7715 Draper ave., begins its annual Lenten music programs March 12 with "Requiem" by Gabriel Faure.

The annual meditation services are directed by the church's ministry of music and feature the 80 voice Chancel Choir and instrumentalists under the direction of L. Robert Slusser.

The Faure presentation will be given at 9 and 10:30 a.m. services on Passion Sunday.

Ladies of Columbus To Initiate Three

New members of Our Lady of Grace Council, Ladies of Columbus, will be initiated on February 21, at 7:30 p.m., at Our Lady of Fatima Council meeting in Chula Vista.

Those joining Our Lady of Grace Council are Margaret Fraenzl, Ann Dobranski and Mary Simon.

The organization is open to practical Catholics who are wives, daughters, mothers or widows of Knights of Columbus and who have passed their 18th birthday.

There's An Answer

by Mr. and Mrs. Norman Vincent Peale

Is There an Answer?

Q. I have questions that keep digging into my soul. All my life I have been looking for meaning or truth. I am not satisfied with concerns of daily living as being the purpose of man.

I've begun to find that only God could be infinite enough to fill all the gaps, for without Him it is a horrible chaos. Yet something is wrong. I continue to question, to test, to search with a frightening zeal for something.

Where do I turn for a community of God to find answers that are not mirrors of other people's narrow-minded "pat" answers?

I sense in your answers to questions a deeper understanding, a fuller wisdom perhaps, that is truly guided by the presence of God. Is it a flaw in me that rejects what has been already established as ultimate Truth?

Do you suggest that I settle down my mind and humbly

Organist at Church

Odile Pierre, titular organist of the Church of Madeleine, Paris, will present an organ recital at the La Jolla Presbyterian Church, 7715 Draper ave., La Jolla, April 9, 4 p.m. Free will offerings will be accepted and child care will be provided.

Gospel Duet To Sing At SV Friends Church

The Nashville based husband and wife gospel singing duet, Moore and Moore, will make an exclusive appearance Tuesday night at Spring Valley Friends Church.

The duet, currently on an 80,000 mile concert tour of the United States, will perform at the church, on the corner of Bancroft and Kenwood streets, in Spring Valley, at 7 p.m.

Mary and Betty Moore's program is designed to communicate a message of religious warmth.

The duet began as an offshoot of the gospel singing group "Re/Generation," formed by composer and arranger Derric Johnson.

Blood Donors Sought

Blood donating volunteers are urgently needed by the S.D. Blood Bank to meet demands of 30 hospitals in S.D. County.

Donors in good health, 18 to 66, can donate at the blood bank's location, 440 Upas st., weekdays 8:30 a.m.-7 p.m. and 8:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. on weekends.

Disaster Classes Offered

Disaster training classes for volunteers interested in helping the Red Cross during times of disaster are offered February 7, 9 and 14, 7:30-9 p.m. at the Red Cross office, 1283 East Main st., suite 103, El Cajon. The number to call is 291-2620.

surrender to a God who comes only upon that surrender?

A. We are impressed by the quality of your mind. You are a thinker. And it's healthy to ask questions, to search for truth and meaning.

You seem to have, however, an overtense attitude that could lead you into the erroneous feeling that everything is bad.

Look for the good. Emphasize love. Strive to know the compassion and understanding of the good God. Then we think you will find a satisfying belief that in life's trouble good ends are developing.

We have a booklet that has helped others with questions such as yours. It is entitled "Faith Builders", and a copy of it is on its way to you.

Anyone reading this column who wishes a free copy may receive one by writing to us in care of Box 500, Pawling, NY 12564.

Wife's Friends on Dope

Q. My wife of one year has left me, the main reason being that I will not associate with her friends who stay high all the time (they stay on dope). I'm at the end of my rope, and I have become depressed to the point of not wanting to live like this any longer.

I love my wife very much, and I will not live without her. Please help us.

A. It is understandable that you do not want to live as you describe. But you owe it to your wife to be patient and understanding. If you treat her lovingly the chances are that you can lead her to different associations.

If she is on dope herself she can be cured by proper treatment. If you love your wife very much, as you say you do, you must just hang in there and help her.

A Sign from God?

Q. Three years ago I had a stillborn, deformed son. Also, I was ill with complications for almost two years afterwards.

This turned my marriage "inside out" so to speak. Now we are thinking of trying again but are so afraid. Is what happened a sign to us from God not to have any more babies? Thank you for your words of advice.

A. Medical advice, as indicated by your question, could be very important. It is also true that no one should live in fear ever.

Unless there are medical reasons that your doctor may give you, as husband and wife, put your lives in God's hands and believe that another child could be well-formed and healthy.

But do not allow another child to be born in a negative and fear-filled mental atmosphere, for that itself is unhealthy.

If there is something you would like to ask Dr. and Mrs. Peale to discuss in this column, write to them in care of Box 500, Pawling, NY 12564.

This Week's RECIPE

Sweet and Sour Short Ribs

The next time you're in the mood for a good ribbing, try your hand at Sweet and Sour Short Ribs.

The ribs are developed by slow cooking the beef, using a small amount of water.

A sauce for the dish is based on a can of tomato sauce with sweet and sour accents added.

Sweet and Sour Beef

Short Ribs

- 4 pounds lean beef short ribs
- 1 tablespoon salt
- 1/2 teaspoon pepper
- 1 (8 ounce) can tomato sauce
- 2 tablespoons molasses
- 2 tablespoons cider vinegar
- 2 tablespoons minced onion
- 1 teaspoon liquid smoke

Have your butcher cut short ribs into squares and then trim off the excess fat.

Sprinkle ribs with salt and pepper. Place in baking dish. Heat all remaining ingredients to boiling, pour over ribs.

Marine Life Viewed in Museum's Field Trip

Dr. William Cummings, Chief Scientist at the San Diego Natural History Museum, will lead a marine mammal field study in the waters off the Mexican Coronados Islands on February 5.

The day-long boat trip should afford sightings of the migrating gray whales, pilot whales and porpoises in the open sea.

The trip is limited to 70 passengers. The cost is $18 for adults and $12 for those 12 years and under.

Departure is scheduled for 9 a.m. with return at 4 p.m.

Reservations are through the Museum's Educational Activities office 232-3821.

Genealogical Society Switches Studios

The San Diego Genealogical Society has moved from studio 30 to studio 19 in the Spanish Village at Balboa Park. The Society has existed since 1945 and has retained its occupancy in the Spanish Village since 1949.

The members enjoy exciting regular meetings, research, work shops, and an annual banquet for installation of new officers. The regular meetings are held on the second Saturday of the month except when there are workshops.

The location of the meetings is at North Park Recreation Center, 4044 Idaho st., in San Diego. The public is invited.

The Society will hold its first regular meeting in 1978 February 11, at 1 p.m. Guest speaker will be Elsie Mettlich, lecturing on "Is That Lineage Right?"

Mechanics Program Held for SV Women

Basic automobile mechanics taught in terms women can understand will be the program at Wednesday's meeting of the Spring Valley Woman's Club.

The meeting will be held at Friends Church, 8955 Kenwood dr., at 1 p.m.

Presenting the program will be Daniel Loreman, auto mechanics instructor at Mount Miguel High School.

Hostesses for the meeting will be Kathleen Shinn and Mary Serr.

EGO Program Speaker Due at Aging Meeting

The director of the Educational Growth Opportunities program (EGO), Peggy Covert, will be the guest speaker at the 1:30 p.m. Monday meeting of the East County Council on Aging.

The meeting will be held in the Lemon Grove Nutrition Site, 3146 School lane.

Covert will discuss the courses held throughout the county by the EGO program.

The program is a part of the San Diego State University College of Extended Studies.

Also during the meeting, new council coordinators will be introduced.

Included in the coordinators is Donna Scott of Spring Valley and Lynda Pflueger of Lemon Grove.

The meetings of the council are open to the public.

'Sports Fashions' Feature Of Woman's Club Benefit

Florence Chadwick, San Diego's famed channel swimmer, will serve as honorary chairman Saturday of a fashion show to benefit the Institute for Burn Medicine.

The show, sponsored by the California Federation of Women's Clubs of S.D. County, will be at the Town & Country Fashion Center in the Mission Ballroom.

Al Coupee, popular sports figure will be m.c.

Emphasis will be on men's wear with well-known professional athletes as models. The show is titled "Sports that Set the Styles" and will offer a fashion history of sports attire from 1877 to 1978 and is produced by Sears Roebuck and Co.

Among athletes scheduled to model are Pat Curran and Rickey Young, Chargers; Bob Babich, Cleveland Browns, and Bob Shirley and John D'Aquisto, Padre pitcher. Beverlee Kelley, founder of the Sears Charm Program in S. California will be moderator for styles.

SD Opera Season Premiers

With Verdi's 'Falstaff'

Spiro Malas, Greek-American bass baritone, will appear in the title role of the San Diego Opera production of Verdi's "Falstaff" on Saturday, at 8 p.m. in the Civic Theatre.

Performances of "Falstaff" will also be given on Tuesday, Wednesday, and February 12 at the Civic Theatre.

Tickets are currently on sale at the Civic Theatre Box Office and at all Select-a-Seat outlets.

S. District 26 Women To Decide Leadership

Mrs. Lowell Elson, a member of La Mesa Woman's Club, has been nominated President of Southern District No. 26 California Federation of Women's Clubs.

Election will be held at the District meeting March 3.

During the meeting additional nominations may be made from the floor, provided consent of the nominee has been obtained.

Other nominees are: 1st Vice President — Mrs. Donald De Frain, 2nd Vice President — Mrs. James Acton, 3rd Vice President — Mrs. James Kester, Recording Secretary — Mrs. John Leitch, Treasurer — Mrs. William J. Parker, and Historian — Mrs. Ronald Duncan of the Spring Valley Woman's Club.

The slate of officers was developed at the Southern District CFWC meeting held in Coronado on January 18.

Chairman of the nominating committee was Mrs. Thomas Thatcher.

Social hour is 11:30 a.m.

Orchestra Turns Skyward

A little more mileage for the film "Star Wars" will come through the San Diego Symphony Orchestra.

The Orchestra plans a special April 17 "pop" concert of the "Music from Outer Space" in the Sports Arena.

Creighton Annual Party at Bahia Feb. 10

The San Diego Area Creighton Club will hold its annual party Friday, February 10, at the Bahia Motel.

San Diego Club President William N. Smith, D.D.S. (D.D.S. '60 & M.D. '69) is in charge of party arrangements. President-elect is Robert J. Holmberg, BSBA (BSBA '58); vice president is Stanley M. Walsh, M.S. (M.S. '73).

Creighton guests will include Robert V. Vining, D.D.S., dean, School of Dentistry and Larry Maxwell, assistant alumni director.

A social hour is planned for 6:30 p.m., with dinner at 7:30 p.m.

Alumni, parents, friends and their spouses are invited to the party. This includes parents of Creighton students, parents of prospective students and friends who have other interests in the university.

The San Diego Creighton Club, numbering 231, is one of 63 such alumni chapters throughout the nation.

Creighton is a private, Catholic university located in Omaha.

Operated by the Jesuit Fathers, it has an enrollment of 4,900.

Gets New PR Post

Sharon Leemaster, former publicity director of the S.D. Symphony, was appointed as Publicity Director for the 1978 Starlight Shows.

In addition to handling publicity for Starlight's "The Music Man", "Kismet" and "Annie Get Your Gun", Leemaster will continue to work for the Belville Dinner Theatre where she is concurrently P.R. Director.

Students Meet Authors

An Author's Fair, featuring 7 authors of children books, is scheduled starting Monday at the Highland Elementary school of Casa de Oro.

Children will have 40 minutes to visit with each one of the authors. The program, initiated by Highland reading specialist Mary Stuart Taylor, is designed to stimulate children's creative writing and motivation in reading.

The Way I See It

By Carolyn Dinger

Why do the aged offend us? Is it because they remind us of our own mortality?

The treatment of elderly citizens is a national disgrace.

Our president tells the world that we stand for human rights.

If we judge by past performance of most politicians, we must define human rights as applying to the downtrodden in foreign countries or to those Americans who are a popular cause and may influence an election.

Let us narrow this national tragedy to the Lemon Grove area.

This newspaper has proposed a visitation program for service clubs. This idea should at least be extended to churches and social service agencies.

We are issuing a challenge to Lemon Grove, and will be reporting on the acceptance of that challenge in future issues.

Authority Speaker

At Parolee Luncheon

Pearle S. West, director of the California Youth Authority, will speak at Monday's luncheon honoring attorneys and CYA parolees involved in the Volunteers in Parole program.

The luncheon is scheduled for 12:30 p.m. in the U.S. Grant Hotel's Crystal Room, 326 Broadway. The program is sponsored by the San Diego Bar Association.

Tutankhamen Background Movies Shown at SV Library

"Tutankhamen, the Immortal Pharaoh", "River Nile" and "Ancient Egyptian" are the free movies to be shown at 7 p.m. on February 9 in the Spring Valley Library.

These films give a background to the Tutankhamen Collection being displayed in Los Angeles, and will be of special interest to those people who plan on viewing the collection.

The Spring Valley Library is located at 1043 Elkton and the library hours are Monday through Thursday 9:30 a.m. to 8:30 p.m., Friday 9:30 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. and Saturday 9:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. The library is closed on Sundays.

Bayi, Stone Add Color, Speed to Indoor Games

World 1,500-meter record holder Filbert Bayi of Tanzania has entered the mile run in the Jack in the Box Invitational track meet Friday night, February 17 at the San Diego Sports Arena.

Bayi, whose world mark was set four years ago in the Commonwealth Games, took the world of track by storm in 1974 and 1975 with some stirring front-running racing. His "try and catch me" style also helped him set a world mark of 3:51.0 in the mile. That mark since has been bettered by John Walker of New Zealand, a 3:49.4 clocking.

Indoors, Bayi has not used the same style. Instead of shooting into a huge lead, he prefers to remain near the front of races and attempts to draw ahead in the final laps. Bayi did not compete in the 1976 Olympics when his nation withdrew in a political dispute, and that prevented him from showing his form to a great field of middle distance runners.

Steve Scott was the first to announce he'd run the mile in San Diego, the place where the UC Irvine runner rocketed to world recognition last year. The Scott-Bayi matchup figures to be sensational by itself, but meet chairman Al Franken has high hopes of adding other world-class stars to the event.

Dwight Stones, the colorful outspoken high jumper, has also set in his entry.

Stones set a world indoor record of 7-6 in the 1976 Jack in the Box meet, a record that stood until last week when Canada's Greg Joy broke it with a 7-7 leap.

Stones, one of the most outgoing personalities in sports, has twice won the bronze medal in Olympic Games competition.

'Timmie' Award For Bill Muncie

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Unlimited hydroplane chauffeur Bill Muncie of San Diego was history's first power boat racer to receive a Washington, D.C., Touchdown Club "Timmie" Award for distinguished achievement.

The 5-time national champion broke a long standing record held by the late Gar Wood when he won his 6th A.P.B.A. Gold Cup last summer. Muncie, 48, drove his new "Atlas Van Lines" to 6 victories in 9 starts last season. His career total 44 race wins distinguishes him as Unlimited hydroplane racing's most successful chauffeur.

Muncie received the award during the 43rd annual Touchdown Club banquet Saturday at the Sheraton Park Hotel in Washington. CBS-TV sports announcer Brent Musberger and Touchdown Club President Robert Johnson made the presentation.

The new "Atlas Van Lines," a lightweight aluminum cab-over designed and built by team crew chief Jim Lucero of Seattle incorporates many new engineering features. Muncie will campaign the Rolls Royce-powered hull again on the 1978 tour and is expected to be a strong contender for the 1978 A.P.B.A. Gold Cup at Owensboro, Kentucky July 2. The $100,000 event is thunderboating's richest race.

Sat. Registration Held by Pony League

Registration for the Skyline-Lemon Grove-Spring Valley Pony League will be held on Saturday for 13 to 14 year old players.

The sign-ups will be from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. at Knapp Field behind San Miguel Elementary School in Lemon Grove. Qualified players must have birthdates between August 1, 1963 and July 31, 1965. The fee for the league is $20 a person or $30 for families.

Also, tryouts for the league will be held on February 18 and 25 at Knapp Field.

The tryouts will be held from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. And there will be a general meeting of the pony league on February 15 at 8 p.m. in San Miguel School Auditorium.

The league's player agent is Ginny Baker at 466-0756 and the league president is Don Sullivan at 461-2097.

Kathy Whitworth—A Golfing Winner

If women's golf is supposed to be a playground for young people, Kathy Whitworth doesn't mind the role of an intruder.

Last year at 38, she earned more money ($108,540) than she did while leading the tour at ages 26 and 27 and 28 combined. Already the all-time money winner in women's golf, she didn't necessarily require the cash. Other benefits were worth as much.

"You look around and see so many good young players competing and you have to wonder how long you can last," Whitworth said. "And when things go sour, you wonder a lot more."

"That's why last year meant so much to me more than the money. It meant that I didn't have to worry about myself. You can't buy the type of confidence I received. It was like I was starting a second career."

Whitworth, a three-time winner last year, has filed her entry for the $165,000 Kathryn Crosby/Honda Civic Golf Classic March 15-19 at Rancho Bernardo. It was at the Honda last year where she believes, her "second career" might have been formed.

S.V. Bat Patrol Leads Coeds

The Bat Patrol leads in the S.V. Adult Coed Softball League. Santee Sol trails by a game.

Standings:
Bat Patrol	6-1
Santee Sole	5-1
Old Bats, Toyota	3-2
McElroy	3-3
Ouicho, Wild Bill's	2-3
Any Sunday, Idiots	2-4
Misfits	1-6

The League is sponsored by the S.V. Park & Rec. Dist. All games are at the S.V. Little League Fields both major and minor.

Little Leaguers Can Sign Sat.

Lemon Grove Little League registration begins at 9 a.m. Saturday at the Monterey Heights Elementary school on Canton dr.

All interested players between the ages 8-12 are invited to sign up.

Players must be accompanied by one parent and bring a birth certificate to certify age. A donation of $15 is required — or $20 for the entire family.

Bull Rastus 'Cap To Close Los Al

LOS ALAMITOS — The final week of action in the record-setting Horsemen's Quarter Horse Racing Assn. meet at Los Alamitos Race Course will showcase the nation's best older stars in the $60,000 HQHRA Championship and quarter racing's premier 870 yard specialists in the $25,000 Bull Rastus Handicap.

The HQHRA Championship will highlight the racing program Saturday while the Bull Rastus will be featured on closing night, Tuesday. Post time Monday thru Saturday evenings remains 7:45.

This winter's HQHRA meeting was the richest ever in both purse money offered and pari-mutuel money handled. The 58-date meet began on December 2 and before the curtain comes down Tuesday, more than $2.5 million in purse money will have been paid.

A Zure Request, from the all-time leading stable of Blane Schvaneveldt, is expected to return to defend his title in the HQHRA Championship. The long striding Azure Te son defeated Little Blue Sheep by a neck in last year's Championship and came back last summer to run third in the Vessels Maturity and second in the Los Alamitos Championship.

'World Without Sun'

Jaques Cousteau's Oscar-award winning film "World Without Sun" will be shown at the Natural History Museum, Balboa Park, February 11 and 12, 2 p.m.

The 91-minute color film covers the life and work of oceanographers. Admission is included in the general museum entrance of $1.

Aztecs Face Long Beach In 2 Games

Last year's Pacific Coast Athletic Association co-basketball Champions square off twice this week, when San Diego State and Long Beach State meet tonight and Saturday.

Tonight the two teams play in the San Diego Sports Arena with tipoff at 8 p.m., while on Saturday the scene shifts to the Long Beach Arena for an 8:05 p.m. tipoff.

Long Beach State comes into the week's action with an 8-9 overall record and is 2-4 in PCAA action.

San Diego State is 11-7 overall and 4-2 in conference action. The Aztecs are coming off a pair of PCAA wins last week, belting Fullerton State 94-69 and UC Santa Barbara 80-56.

Long Beach State split a pair of conference games last week, beating UC Santa Barbara 72-65 and losing to Fullerton State 83-81 on a last second shot.

"These are a pair of crucial games for us," said Aztec coach Tim Vezie. "Over the years our rivalry with Long Beach has grown very intense and now we have to play them back-to-back. I don't think either team likes it that way, but that's the way it is and we'll have to live with it."

Beer, Pizza, Hockey Sat. At SD Arena

The San Diego Mariners return home Saturday for an 8 o'clock hockey game with the San Francisco Shamrocks, under the leadership of Wayne Rivers.

The prognosis isn't too good since the Shamrocks have won the last 3 games in a row out of the 5 they've played.

The Mariners are in 3rd place just 1 point out of 2nd and 3 points out of 1st.

There'll be some added attractions during the evening. It'll be 25c beer night and every thirsty fan knows what that means. It'll also be Square Pan Pizza night with every fan getting a free pizza — if the Mariners win.

Prior to that — at 5 o'clock — the Junior Mariners will play the L.A. Junior Kings. That means the "rush" tickets go on sale at 5 instead of the normal hour of 6. Rush tickets are $2.50 for adults and $2 for juniors.

After the Saturday game the team goes to Phoenix then returns home the following Saturday.

Parking is free at the hockey games.

Tourney Features 'Day for Cosell'

PALM SPRINGS — Howard Cosell, who doesn't play golf but unmistakably talks a good game, reports the 7th Howard Cosell Day With The All-Americans Tournament will be played Tuesday, February 7 on the North Course of the Canyon Country Club.

The 18-hole charity event, featuring former collegiate All-American golfers, will be a shotgun, starting at noon. Admission is $5, including a free program.

The All-American Collegiate Golf Foundation, which sponsors the tourney and is headed by Bill Fugazy, has provided 47 scholarships to needy but bright young men from across the country.

Tournament chairman, Al di Scipio, president of Magnavox, has a stellar field of pros and celebrities. Defending champion Dave Hill, former PGA champions Dave Stockton and Bob Rosburg and the reigning PGA ruler, Lany Wadkins, are among the early entries, along with former Trojans Alan Tapie, Mark Pfeil and Kemp Richardson.

Cosell said a few openings remain for amateur players. The fee is a tax deductible $1,000. Contact chairperson Suzanne Hemming at (714) 325-5531 for applications.

Penmanship, Dance, Spanish Courses Open at G'mont

Grossmont College will offer three new courses including ballroom dancing, Spanish, and a class in penmanship.

The first, ballroom dancing, will delve into the basic steps of the fox trot, swing, waltz, rumba, cha-cha, samba and tango.

The class will be held from 7 to 9 p.m. on Monday's beginning Monday and will continue through March 27 at the Foot-hills United Methodist Church, 4031 Avocado blvd., in La Mesa. The fee for the class is $5.

The class in Spanish will be held from 7 to 10 p.m. on Wednesday evenings beginning February 8 at the Recreation Room of Lake Park, 5700 Baltimore dr., La Mesa. The language course is free. Also, a course on your pen-

IRS Has Last Years Checks For Some 5,000 Taxpayers

Federal income tax refund checks from last year totaling more than $1 million are waiting to be claimed by 5,165 Southern California taxpayers.

Many of the checks were returned to the Internal Revenue Service as "undeliverable" because the persons to whom they were sent have moved and left no forwarding address with the U. S. Postal Service.

Taxpayers who filed their 1976 federal tax returns on time and have not received their refunds should check with the IRS as soon as possible.

Some refund delays can also be caused by lost or stolen checks. In these cases, the IRS can put tracers on the missing checks.

Other refunds may be delayed because of errors or omissions on tax returns. In these cases, persons who have received instructions from the IRS should forward the information needed in order to speed up issuance of their checks.

$325,000 Improvement For Expo Flower Show

The flower and garden show at the Southern California Exposition at Del Mar will have a new facade this summer under a $325,000 improvement program approved recently by the Expo's board of directors.

R. R. Richardson, president, said a flower show building built during earlier fairs will be removed.

An overhead rigid span structure, open on all sides, will be erected. This will cover the area used for the Trade Mart and half of the flower and garden show.

Altogether, 66,000 square feet of space will be under the new roof. The structure will eliminate the need for putting up saran cloth — a fabric like netting — over the area which has been time consuming and costly.

Because of the absence of walls, the flower and garden show will continue to be the largest outdoor flower show of its kind in California, said Richardson. This improvement was long overdue he added.

Directors also have approved a premium awards schedule amounting to $185,483.25 in 14 major departments including livestock, horse show, feature exhibits, agriculture, horticulture, floriculture, home arts, arts and crafts, photography, poultry, pigeons, rabbits, industrial education and junior fair.

More than 260 vehicles valued at some $3,000,000 will be parked in the San Diego Community Concourse for the 25th annual San Diego World of Wheels Custom Car Show.

The show will be held one month earlier on February 24, 25, and 26.

More than 375,000 man-hours have been put in on design and construction of the show rods and roadsters, custom street and show bikes, show and street vans and trucks, competition machines, and futuristic show cars.

Previous World of Wheels shows have been held in late March.

CRIME FIGHT Tip of the Week

"Your California Driver's license just may be your best weapon against burglary. Be sure to engrave your driver's license number and the letters 'CA' on all your valuables. Burglars know this makes your property 'too hot to handle'. For more information on how you can thwart crime, call the Crime Prevention Unit, at the Sheriff's Department."

The material is supplied by the S.D. County Sheriff's Department as part of an ongoing crime suppression program.

Car Pool for Spring Valley

Commuters who live in Rancho San Diego, Jamul, or Spring Valley, looking for car pools can take advantage of a new service from Caltrans.

The new service, dubbed "Park 'n Pool", allows commuters to meet in one location, at the Sweetwater Springs interchange on Route 94 in Casa De Oro, to double up in their autos.

The idea of the Park 'n Pool concept is for commuters to meet in a convenient location on their way to work, double-up, leaving some cars parked, then continue on to their jobs.

Briggs Urges Prudence for Cal. Candidates

Senator John V. Briggs, Republican candidate for Governor, has called upon former Police Chief Ed Davis to "stop making unfounded, personal attacks."

Briggs statement came in response to charges by Davis that he (Briggs) had engaged in "dirty tricks" by having a television crew record a candidate forum held during a weekend convention of the California Republican Assembly.

Senator Briggs said, "I can understand why Chief Davis would not want the results of that candidate, forum to be recorded and shown to Republican voters. Davis came out in opposition to my initiative for a tough, effective death penalty. He refused to endorse my initiative to remove openly homosexual teachers from the public schools. And he continued to waffle on the Jarvis Property Tax Reform Amendment. Surely, these weak and negative positions on three controversial issues will lose him votes in June."

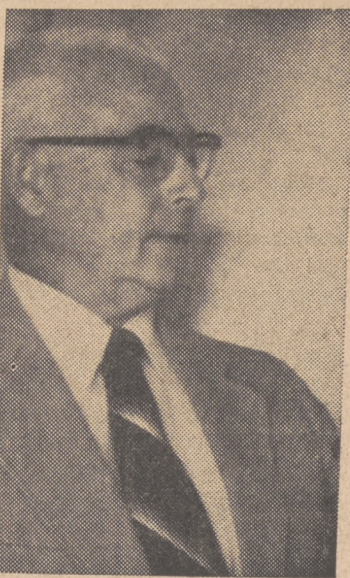

"However," Senator Briggs continued, "just because Chief Davis wishes to hide his views from the voters does not justify a personal attack on my integrity. My camera crew was clearly identified as belonging to the Briggs Campaign and, at no time, did they attempt to masquerade as newsmen as charged by Davis. His charge of political dirty tricks was entirely unfounded and indicative of a paranoid and politically naive approach to campaigning which tarnishes the image of the Republican Party."

Briggs concluded by challenging Davis to stop waffling on key issues but said "Even though we have serious disagreements on important issues, I will still support Davis if he becomes the Republican nominee for Governor because he would certainly be preferable to Brown."

Metric System; How it Works

By John Corbett

Many scientific and industrial measurements require a measurement of length much smaller than the millimetre. This next, smaller measurement of length uses the prefix "micro." The micrometre is the thousandth part of one millimetre. There are one million (1 000 x 1 000) micrometres in one metre.

It is important to realize that, although the steps between metre, decimetre, centimetre and millimetre are of a ten-to-one size relationship, the step between kilometre and metre, and the step between millimetre and micrometre are one thousand to one.

Name	Symbol	Value
kilometre	km	1 000
metre	m	1
decimetre	dm	0.1
centimetre	cm	0.01
millimetre	mm	0.001

SUMMARY

The SI unit of length is the metre.

One million micrometres make a metre.

One thousand millimetres make a metre.

One hundred centimetres make a metre.

Ten decimetres make a metre.

One thousand metres make a kilometre.

'Work for Welfare' Program Suggested

Senator Bob Wilson said that his "work for welfare" bill, Senate Bill 680, received a favorable vote by the Senate Health and Welfare Committee.

Under Wilson's legislation, any county in California could institute a "work for welfare" program, whereby recipients of the Aid to Families with Dependent Children could be enlisted in a work project.

Wilson explained, "Work projects could be established by state and local agencies, school districts and community college districts that need additional employees in their offices who who are not budgeted extra positions. For example, many schools throughout the state have suffered substantial losses because of vandalism. Under my program, an able-bodied and capable person could be stationed at a school as a guard during non-school hours."

Wilson concluded, "I envision a program where work project participants hold productive jobs and provide badly needed community services. They would then have the opportunity to contribute something to their community while picking up valuable job experience."

The bill goes to the Senate Finance Committee for further action.

SDG&E To Appeal Ruling On Sundesert Nuke Plant

SACRAMENTO — San Diego Gas and Electric Company has appealed to the California Legislature to grant an unconditional exemption from further regulation for the Sundesert Nuclear Plant.

SDG&E presented a record of proof to the State Energy Commission which shows the new plant meets the legislative criteria established under Assembly Bill 1852.

AB 1852 requires environmental acceptability of both site and facility in a concept dubbed "practice alternative technology."

SDG&E charged the staff of the Energy Commission failed to understand the language involved in AB 1852 by not conducting essential environmental screening studies of sites.

"In the absence of such information," a company spokesman said, "as a matter of law, the record will not support a finding of environmental acceptability for any facility/site combination which the staff urges as practical alternative to the Sundesert Plant."

SDG&E found more than 30 contradictions of the State Energy Commission staff in its presentation during the proceedings under AB 1852.

The contradictions included issues on conservation, generation alternatives, economic comparability, environmental acceptability, and timelines of alternatives.

The gas company proposes to construct the Sundesert Nuclear Plant on Palo Verde Mesa, 16 miles southwest of Blythe. The two 950-megawatt unit plant would provide electricity for SDG&E's customers as well as those of six other Southern California utilities and the Department of Water Resources.

Surplus to Top $5 Billions

State Income Tax Rips California Residents

By Assemblyman Bill Craven

The hottest issue now before the State Legislature is homeowners property tax relief. But it may only be a smoldering ember compared to what will happen when taxpayers fully understand how they are being ripped off by the state income tax.

It could cause an explosion tantamount to the taxpayers' revolt some disgruntled individuals have been predicting in recent years.

As these words are being written, your state government is taking more money from you in the form of taxes than it needs to pay its bills. The resulting surplus of your tax dollars will be around $3.2 billion June 30, the end of the state's 1977-78 fiscal year, and over $5 billion at the end of the next year.

No, that is not a typographical error. We are writing about billions, not millions.

The primary reason for the huge surplus is inflation, the cruellest tax of all. Even though Californians are earning more dollars than ever before, their purchasing power is diminishing. Last year's dollar lost seven percent of its value compared to the year before. But while their personal income was climbing 12.5 percent, the state's personal income tax collections shot up more than 21 percent.

Two L.G. Men Credit CB Radio With Saving Life of Ailing Girl

Two Lemon Grove men and their CB radios may have saved the life of a 12-year-old Brawley girl.

The men, Craig Lake and Mike Bini, were returning from a sports-classic auto show in Albuquerque, N. Mexico on January 9. They were in separate trucks — each towing a show auto. Lake had just won the sports sweepstakes with his car and Bini won the classic sweepstakes. It was 11 p.m. when they neared Japattul Valley and the fog was so dense vision was restricted to approximately a car's length.

A motorist a half-mile or so ahead of them cautioned on his CB radio that a car was broken down in the slow lane and while flares were burning, it could not be seen except for a short distance.

When the two arrived on the scene, it was an ambulance which had lost its electric power.

Passengers in the vehicle were the 12-year old girl with a ruptured spleen, her doctor, a nurse and two attendants. The girl was being rushed to University hospital in San Diego.

Lake radio'd the CB base station and requested Hartson be asked to rush a substitute ambulance. Meanwhile, Bini managed to "hot-wire" the ambulance battery and got it running again. But there was not enough energy to make the headlights operational so the two L.G. men put the ambulance between the two trucks and slowly made their way toward San Diego.

Lake kept his CB going until he was in the Hartson ambulance range. Just outside El Cajon the two vehicles met and the patient and her party were transferred to the other substitute ambulance and they were transported to the hospital.

The vigil that began at 11 p.m. was completed at 4 a.m. Heavy fog made traveling extremely slow and cautious.

Two days later Lake called the hospital and learned that the girl who was dangerously near death, had survived and the prognosis for recovery was good.

Earth-Universe

Message is Topic

Of S.D. Space Show

The actual coded message sent from Earth to other life in the Universe is part of the new show, "Are We Alone?", which opened this week at the Reuben H. Fleet Space Theater Balboa Park.

The multi-media production asks the question — and answers with the most current scientific information — "Is there other life in the Universe?", "What kind of beings would they be?", "Can we communicate with them?", "Can we contact them?", "Where do you look and how do you go about it?"

Dr. Frank Drake, professor of astronomy at Cornell U. and head of the first communication project to extraterrestrial life, sent the Space Theater and exclusive recording of the actual message that was sent from Earth. This message was transmitted in November 1974 and was beamed to the very edge of the Milky Way.

The multi-media, special-effects production also dramatizes the current, ongoing, "listening" project for messages from possible galactic civilizations to Earth. It points out that there may be in the Milky Way galaxy alone, 100,000 stars with possible life-bearing planets. It explains what kind of stars are the possible stars and what kind of planets are possible planets.

"Are We Alone?" also discusses the probabilities of other life including the most recent scientific conclusions, and features a bill scheduled to come up on Congress to allocate funds for a full-time six-year search called "SETTI" (Search for Extra-Terrestrial Intelligence).

The Reuben H. Fleet Space Theater is located on the east side of Balboa Park just off Park blvd. two blocks south of the Zoo entrance. Free parking is available on the south side of the building.

Japanese Students Seek Study Homes in L.G.-S.V. Areas

There is a need for 30 homes in Lemon Grove and Spring Valley for Japanese students coming to San Diego County as part of an "Interstudy" program.

In the program, families are requested to become host homes for about three weeks starting February 14.

The students are from various Japanese universities and have funds to pay for their own transportation here and back, and pay for their own entertainment and sightseeing. The host family will provide a room and meals only.

According to Barbara Dawson of Spring Valley, who heads the "Interstudy" program locally, the youngsters are in the 18-23 age group and will attend special schools in English while here.

Homes are preferred where young people of about the same age are in the family. All of the students are able to speak varying degrees of English.

Dawson has three young people in the family—ages 17, 16 and 13. The eldest is a boy. They have hosted three Japanese students in the past.

"It's a tremendously rewarding to see these young people develop in the American culture," she said.

She noted that they are meager eaters. "We throw away more food than they consume at a meal." She cupped one hand to indicate the amount the student eats.

"By the time they are ready to leave, their food intake has nearly doubled," she said, laughing.

The students are covered by insurance and families take no risk in hosting them, she said.

Dawson can be reached at 469-9078 after 3 p.m. daily.

THE RACE — The start of the monthly competition at the College Grove Mini-Speedway was one smooth operation complete with flagman.

In competition Saturday, "driver" Charles Trent qualified for a race to be held later this year for monthly winners. Trent has been racing for about one month.

SPEEDWAY MANAGER Chris Gonzaba shows some of the finer points of racing to Miss Lemon Grove, Charlie Gundersen. Miss Lemon Grove did well in her first attempt. on Grove did well in her first attempt as a driver racing the cars.

Second Indoor Track in Nation

Auto Racing In College Grove Is Done on a 'Small' Scale

They don't play "Back Home Again in Indiana" nor is there the pomp of Tony Hulman's "Gentlemen — start your engines".

But, it's racing — auto racing of a different sort.

On the lower level of the College Grove Shopping Center, a new race track has opened up.

County to Hire Through Agencies

To provide a pool of temporary employees, the County of San Diego will solicit cost bids from local temporary employment agencies.

The Board of Supervisors unanimously voted to approve distribution of a Request for Proposal (RFP) to employment agencies by the Office of Management and Budget in conjunction with the Department of Personnel.

Private employment agency contracting is needed by County departments for immediate hiring on a short-term basis.

As a pilot effort, only the clerical group in Salary Ordinance and Data Entry Operator classifications will be eligible for temporary hiring.

Short-term staff will be used in times of peak seasonal workloads, in the absence of regular employees where workloads are too heavy for remaining staff, as interim appointments to vacant positions during permanent employee recruiting, and for short-term workloads, special assignments and backlogs.

The Board also imposed a 60-day limit on temporary staff use and requested that temporary personnel not be used in sensitive positions.

The cars are remote controlled, powered by 4 cell batteries.

The drivers are pioneers in a new sport — the sport of armchair auto racing.

According to the owner of the College Grove Mini-Speedway, Richard Heisel, his track is the second in the nation in the new sport.

Heisel said only one other indoor track for remote controlled race cars currently exists in the United States. That track is in the State of Washington.

The cars are powered by 4 cell batteries and are controlled by radio boxes. The car's speed and steering can be manipulated by the "driver" with two electronic switches.

The cars are one-twelfth scale and reach top speeds of some 20 miles an hour. Twenty miles per hour at one-twelfth scale is the same as traveling 240 miles an hour on a one to one scale.

For that reason, Heisel has taken precautions to make sure spectators cannot be injured by flying cars.

The Track
The track is carpet and is patterned after the European road race tracks.

During competition matches, bottle dots (freeway lane dividers) are used to mark off the track. The dots force the car into the air and usually a flip.

Operations
It costs about $2 to race the cars at the College Grove Mini-Speedway. For that $2, the driver receives one battery charge or about 15 minutes worth of racing.

Top competitors of the month gather for competition on one Saturday a month and a point standings for those top racers are logged.

At 8 p.m. on Wednesday nights, the points are tallied for the Saturday competition.

At those Wednesday contests, the top three finishers qualify for the monthly series.

Owner Heisel got into the mini-racing business by being a competitor himself. His next competition will be early this summer in Boston, Mass. at races sanctioned by ROAR, Radio Operated Auto Racing, an organization based in Madison, Illinois.

The College Grove Mini-Speedway is located on the lower level of the shopping center, next door to Radio Shack.

Hay Buyer Jailed

On January 31 a Sutter County resident will begin a 60-day jail sentence for purchasing hay for resale without a license.

According to the state Department of Food and Agriculture, the Sutter County Municipal Court recently convicted Richard L. McVey of Live Oak on two counts of violating the Food and Agricultural Code.

McVey had purchased several loads of hay from Warren Riley, also of Live Oak, without the proper license from the department.

The Produce Dealers Act, which is enforced by the department's Bureau of Market Enforcement, requires anyone purchasing, handling, or soliciting California farm products for resale to be licensed.

The bureau was established in 1928 to protect agriculturalists in the marketing of their products.

Citations May Curb Speed and Drinking in High Accident Areas

Motorists who drink and drive fast, or any one of the two, will face concentrated California Highway Patrol manpower force in the future.

According to Captain C. M. Douglas, commander of CHP's East County area — roughly 70th st. to the Imperial County border and Hwy 8 to the Mexican border—a shuffle of personnel will be in the places where trouble spots now exist.

Public relations officer Harvey Smith said that evidence indicates most accidents stem from speed or drinking or a combination.

Records show that the accident rate goes down when enforcement goes up. "Unfortunately, it doesn't go down in the same proportion as the accelerated enforcement."

The target for increased enforcement is Hwy. 8 in the Alpine-Pine Valley area. "Factually," Smith said, "there are more citations for drinking than for speeding at the western part of 8 and more citations for speeding than drinking in the Alpine-Pine Valley areas. Of course, we'll move west after the problem in the east diminishes."

Douglas said the department is convinced it can reduce the number of accidents now being recorded by putting more units in view in the problem areas.

"We're dedicated to reducing the accidents and incidents rate," Douglas added.

He admitted that the project would reduce enforcement in some other areas.

Records show that Hwy. 8, 70th to Greenfield in El Cajon was the scene of the most accidents (10) in a small (4 mile) urban area in 4 weeks

Coronado's 'Secret Affairs' Billed A Garden of the Comic

By Susanne Williams

That additions can be hilariously funny is demonstrated by the Coronado Playhouse's most recent stage adoption of Paul Zindel's "The Secret Affairs of Mildred Wild."

Addition in this play takes the form of Mildred Wild's (Tina Cluff) total absorption by movies, movie magazines and soap operas. As a Brooklyn housewife married to a diabetic baker Roy (Jack Pritchard) she lives out the frequent crises of her drab existence in celluloid fantasies.

And crises, as befitting a good comedy, lurk around every corner: Landlady Bertha (Jeanne Applin) leads a persistent attack on Roy's clumsy attempts at marital fidelity. Roy's self-righteous sister (Boots Sapper), head dietitian in a convent, tries unsuccessfully to have Mildred forsake her movie addiction for more housewifery activities.

But Mildred remains seemingly untroubled, and substitutes crisis management with double features and dreams of Rhett Butler.

Her world starts shaking, however, when a TV contest, in which she wins the first prize as Hollywood Housewife, turns into a bitter disappointment, when a wrecking crew is about to demolish the dilapidated apartment house in which she lives, and when Roy starts packing his bags.

Needless to say, a happy end untangles the situational mess, culminating in a burlesque song and dance number with all players.

The cast is delightful and funny with Trina Cluff bordering on the superb. Her acting strength increases from act to act, climaxing in a touching, subtly played last scene.

Hedgecock Asks Help On His Tax Limit Plan

By Roger Hedgecock
County Supervisor 3rd District

Next Tuesday the Board of Supervisors will discuss my proposal to limit property tax revenues.

It is an important meeting because the public may ultimately determine the County's share of your tax bill. Although the County's new fiscal year (1978-79) is still 5 months away, the budget preparation is grinding into full gear.

Consequently, the adoption of my proposed limit on property tax revenues will have a substantial impact on the final version of that budget.

Here is where the taxpayer has the opportunity to express an opinion on what level of financing property tax dollar should provide for County government.

Despite the fact that the County collects the taxes for all local governments in San Diego County, the County government retains only 20% of the tax dollar. The remaining 80% is disbursed to incorporated cities, school districts and special districts — in all, more than 298 different taxing entities.

This year's County share of the tax dollar is less than the 1976-77 tax year by almost 4%.

This reduction is a direct result of the Supervisor's adoption of my previous budget policy guideline to limit the property tax revenues to be collected by the County. In fact, the County not only held the line on the collection of property tax revenues but also decreased those revenues by $5.2 million.

The Board adopted last year's "hold the line" budget policy largely as a result of input from citizens.

The 1978-79 budget "season" again proposes a "hold the line" policy on property tax revenues for County government adopted by the Board of Supervisors. I have made the proposal.

If the policy is adopted, it will mean that the property tax dollars that are paid for the operation of County government will actually be less.

Residents are urged to be present at the hearing to support my efforts in your behalf.

The meeting will be Tuesday at 10 a.m. at the County Administration Center, 1600 Pacific Highway, Room 310.

Those who cannot attend should send comments to Roger Hedgecock at the above address or call his office at 236-2271 and voice an opinion.

New Head for 39 News

Tom Mitchell was appointed as News Director for KCST-TV, Channel 39 and will replace Bill Peterson who has resigned to accept a position in Cleveland.

Mitchell, who worked for CBS News and KNXT in Los Angeles and KPIX in San Francisco, has nine years experience in TV news.

Renter's Refund Due

Low income renters who don't have enough taxable income to meet the state requirements for filing income tax returns may lose a $35 check from the Franchise Tax Board.

Unlike most credits claimed with tax returns, this is not a credit against tax but a refundable amount even if there is no tax liability.

The requirements for the credit are: 1) the renter must be a California resident, 2) have rented their current abode since March 1 of the tax year, 3) must not be receiving a homeowner's or property tax exemptions, be claimed as a dependent, or be receiving welfare payments which include an allowance for housing.

Ask Your C.H.P.

CHP Capt. C.M. Douglas

Last week Captain Douglas discussed breakdowns on the freeway.

If you have a question, no matter how insignificant it may appear to you, ask it. It could save a citation or maybe even your life.

Address your questions in care of this newspaper and please allow at least three weeks for your answer to appear.

This week's question:

The curbs now-a-days are painted so many different colors it's hard to keep track of them. Could you please list the colors and what they mean.

Answer:

Red — indicates no stopping, standing or parking, whether the vehicle is attended or not.

Yellow — indicates stopping only for the purpose of loading or unloading passengers or freight for such time as may be specified by local ordinance.

White — indicates stopping only for loading or unloading passengers for such time as may be specified by local ordinance or for the purpose of depositing mail in an adjacent mailbox.

Green — indicates time limit parking specified by local ordinance.

Blue — indicates parking limited exclusively to the vehicles of physically handicapped persons.
